Track Meet on Franklin Field Tomorrow to Be Close Competition

BUSY DAY FOR QUAKERS

Franklin Field will be a busy place tomorrow afternoon. Starting at 1:30, with a dual meet with Dartmouth, every inch of space will be kept busy until the straw...

Our sprinters will not be very strong this year; while in the past they have shown our heavy scoring...

Kaufman will have to hold us up in these events this year. He can win the 100 and 220 yards, but that will be the extent of our scoring in the sprints...

Worthington will be Dartmouth's war horse on Saturday. He is entered in six events, and while it seems almost impossible for him to win them all, he will...

Pat Bradley will be another good quarter-mile for Dartmouth. He was in the intercollegiate finals last year and has run better than 50 seconds...

Thibault and Turner should take care of the jump. Matthews the hammer, Newstetter and Sewell the pole vault, Dorizas and Withrow in the shot, and Bertollet, Jones and Ivory in the broad jump ought to give us a good margin of points...

Trinholt in Shape. Dartmouth will have a good man in the hurdles, Trinholt, who was out last year on account of appendicitis, is going good this year...

Noidell, who won the intercollegiate broad jump in 1914, is in that event again this year and will probably be second to Worthington.

The total points scored will be very close but Pennsylvania ought to win last year we won easily, but then we scored very heavily in the sprints, which gave us a big lead at the start.

I will only run the quarter unless it is necessary for me to do more. I have had only one day's work since the relay and don't want to do any more than necessary until the Cornell dual meet...

sent a lengthy communication to Jack boasting his "hope" to the skies and said he would make good in his first start. He will have to go some, however, as White is a strong, rugged boxer and is good enough to give any of the boys in his class a hard battle.

The wind-up will bring together Billy De Foe and Eddie Campi and a very fast bout should result.

The cause of his undue enthusiasm is unknown at this writing. After his bout with Retch, Fulton was labeled the Herkimer athlete and urged to go back to his work as a plasterer. It is true that Fred won, but it was only because he was not so bad as Al Reich. If this battle is used as a criterion, it would be best to carry it out further and match the winner with Henry Leonard at catchweights.

Something must be done to force Welsh either to defend his title or get out of the game altogether. His fiascos with second-raters, "spork" and "beaners" and other hams throughout the country are being frowned upon by the boxing public, and Congress should pass a law giving him a pension. Last Wednesday night Freddie met an unknown labeled Frankie McGuire in Harrisburg and received the other end of the decision. Now, if a guy like McGuire can win over a champion, what chance will Freddie have against a REAL boxer like White or Leonard?

The members of the Broadway A. C. were treated to several furious bouts last night. Only one, the first, failed to last the full six rounds, but the clubmen forgot all about it soon after it was over. Mr. M. Taylor, the static referee presario, worked the changeable referee system and it made a hit. Muggsy officiated in the first act, chiefly because it was short and it gave him a chance to look over the "house." Then he retired to the box office and allowed Don Falen and Johnny Geppich to alternate in the other duets.

Jawn McGuigan is very strong for new faces at his upholstery club and will spring another one for his guests tomorrow night. Johnny Cashill, who hails from Minneapolis, will mix with Frankie White in the semiwind-up, and his work will be closely watched by all of those present. Johnny is a protege of Mike Gibbons and the Phantom avers he is the best featherweight in the business. He Harvard Baseball Coach Sues. BOSTON, May 5.—Dr. Frank J. Weston, of Brookline, former coach of the Harvard baseball nine, has brought civil action against the college, asking $2000 damages, claiming a breach of the three-year contract to coach the team. Dr. Weston was to be paid $3000 for each college year. He says that he was paid $2100 for his services in 1915 and that there is still due him $900 for that year.

Impoverished blood soon puts a man out-of-the-running. Impoverished gasoline will do the same thing to a motor. Good gasoline has got to be more than something that flows through a brass screen, smells and costs money. Now, perhaps more than ever before, motorists must beware of mongrel fuels. Despite market conditions, the uniform boiling-point that made Atlantic Gasoline famous is steadfastly maintained. We couldn't afford to alter that, even if we would. Buy Atlantic by name.
